RE: accreditation status: Financial Planning Institute (FPI) (INSETA accreditation number 130043)

INSETA ETQA confirms that the FPI accreditation award is valid for a period of 5 (five) years, from the date of accreditation, 3 February 2004.

INSETA has conducted preliminary monitoring and has granted provisional extension for a further period until April 2010 as audits are currently being conducted for continued accreditation of all its primary focus providers for a further 5 years.

The FPI's secondary accreditation scope, including access to the Inseta SMS for NLRD uploads, will nevertheless remain valid until final date for achievement of all approved unit standards and/or qualifications. Relevant details of registered unit standards and/or qualifications may be found on the SAQA website, www.saqa.org.za.

Yours faithfully

Neesha Naidoo
ETQA, Assistant Manager
